

December 12, 2005

To Whom It May Concern:

Re: Tracy Bell

She's a bright flame when you need to light up a room full of guests. This night in particular, November 29, the room was wall to wall with VIP's and bankers. They were all primed to help celebrate the opening of the new Prospera Credit Union branch on Granville Street in Vancouver.

Tracy fit effortlessly into the theme of our event which promised rock star status to members and anyone doing business at the new branch. Our guests were entertained thoroughly by the outlandish Cher and the effusive Celine Dion characters brought to life by Tracy.

Along with her wit and charm, Tracy is a true professional. We appreciated her humour and the accommodating attitude she brought to our event.

Thank you Tracy, we hope you're available next time we need a spark at one of our future receptions.

Yours truly,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Chris Kennedy', is written over a horizontal line.

Chris Kennedy
Manager, Public Relations

CK/et